ABOUT THE RETREAT

A meditation chapel is set up for the retreat and is open at all times.

The weekend will be non-speaking between devotees from the first Meditation Service on Friday until after the last one on Monday.

SRF publications are available to borrow. Please refrain from reading secular literature, newspapers, etc. during the retreat.

We ask retreatants to attend the whole retreat, if possible, and to follow the Group Meditation Guidelines as set out by the London Centre of Self-Realization Fellowship.

Please do not contact the Retreat Centre directly regarding diets or other special needs, but specify when booking. This helps us in our relationship with the Retreat Centre. Thank you.

Discounted places may be available for SRF members are unable to pay the full booking fee. Please ask if you need to know more. Or if you should wish to make a contribution to the fund, this also would be deeply appreciated.
